

WOMEN'S PLATFORM

COMMITTEE NOMINATION AND ELECTION PROCEDURES

NOMINATION

1. At the 2023 Annual General Meeting up to four new Committee will be elected. Positions are for a two year period and are open to any woman aged over 16 who is interested in joining Women's Platform. Successful candidates will join the current Board of Directors elected in 2022.
2. Using the nomination form enclosed, each full Member organisation may submit nominations for a Committee Member. A full member is any not-for-private profit organisation which principally represents or works for women, or as part of a wider portfolio of concerns and activities is directly involved in promoting the advancement and rights of women and/or girls.
3. A candidate can be any woman aged over 16. The candidate can be from the nominating organisation or linked to it, but this is not a prerequisite for nomination. A candidate must agree to the nomination and must complete a Declaration and Consent Form.
4. Each nomination form must be signed by the Authorised Representative of the nominating Member Organisation, and must be accompanied by a Declaration and Consent Form, completed by the Candidate. Otherwise the nomination will be invalid. Electronic signatures are accepted.
5. Completed nomination forms must reach Women's Platform by 5pm on Wednesday 11 October 2023. Forms should be submitted by email to info@womensplatform.org.

ELECTION

6. When nominations close on Wednesday 11 October 2023 any unopposed candidates will be declared elected.
7. Should the number of nominations exceed the number of vacancies, a secret ballot of voting members present at the Annual General Meeting will take place. Ballots will be issued at the start of the Annual General Meeting.
8. The election results will be declared at the Annual General Meeting.
9. Successful candidates will join the Committee as members.
10. Office bearers can serve for a maximum of three consecutive years. They will be eligible for re-election after standing down for at least one year. The exception to this is the European Women's Lobby representative, who can serve for a maximum of four consecutive years, and can be re-elected after standing down for at least one year.
